

- 2 -

Sept. 1st, 1926.

me and was informed that the man who made the search of the old books had made up a report and given it to the Captain who has it in his desk.

Operative then made inquiries at #47 High Street in an effort to find some one who might remember Mary Eisleitner but could not find anyone who knew anything about her or ever heard of her.

Respectfully submitted:

G.T.P.